NEW PROGRAM LAUNCH: EMERGING LEADERS COUNCIL (ELC)

"Starting our ELC was more than just a rebranding of our old college advisory council. It was a testament to SADD's commitment to continue empowering youth in their next chapter, whatever that may be. Seeing National SLC alum come together and be reunited with those they may not have seen in a while was one of the most rewarding moments of my time with SADD."

Louis Pratt

Emerging Leaders Council (ELC) Chair
SADD National SLC President Emeritus
NY Community Engagement Specialist

STRAIGHT FROM THE SLC

“From forming friendships with student leaders across the country to working on health and safety programming globally, we have been able to turn our passion into impact.”

- Aarushi Bedhiya, SLC National President

Research by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) indicates that motor vehicle crashes are the number one killer of teens today. Of these deaths, 54% of teens (13-19 years old) were unbuckled.

The SADD Rock the Belt program is designed to increase the seat belt use rate for tweens and teens. Students can complete activities to increase their knowledge about seat belt use and encourage their peers to buckle up!

Some of the key activities include:

- The Quick-Click Challenge
- The Seat Belt Selfie Challenge
- Chalk The Walk
- AND MORE!

ADVISOR SPOTLIGHT

“Joining SADD in high school gave me a foundation to make positive changes. When I became a teacher, I wanted to inspire my students to make better choices, leading me to start the first SADD chapter at my school.”

- Holly Wagoner Clay Christian Academy SADD advisor
